1. The ardent Falangist Count Augustin de Foxa, First Secretary of the Spanish Legation in Buenos Aires, has been offered a special assignment at San Juan, Puerto Rico, to cultivate the anti-United States nationalist elements of the island.
2. During a recent discussion of the special mission with Jose Antonio Gimenez Arnau, a former Falangist propaganda official who was recently transferred from Dublin to Montevideo as Spanish Commercial Attache, Count de Foxa said that the assignment had a certain appeal for him. He was reluctant to accept it, however, because he does not like Puerto Rico. Gimenez Arnau tried to persuade Count de Foxa to accept the assignment, and source believes that he will do so.
